OUT

Contain is rethinking active storage from the inside out. This streamlined collection is designed to unify an entire office, while maximizing storage capacity. With a variety of storage sizes and shapes, it is perfectly suited for today's shrinking workspaces. The low metal credenzas elevate the overall aesthetic, and offer easy access to frequently used items. Expand your capabilities for storage, efficiency and collaboration with Contain, the versatile storage solution that maximizes footprints and brings everything and everyone together in one convenient, distinctive collection.

Versatility Meets Compatibility

ENCOURAGE EXPRESSION

Creative configurations and easily accessible storage make it simple to configure every space to the unique personality and workstyle of each person.

INVITE INTERACTION

Contain turns any space into a hub for collaboration, with low credenzas and fabric-wrapped cushions that accommodate short-term seating.

DEFINE BOUNDARIES

Contain credenzas work great together to define boundaries and pathways that create efficient space planning opportunities that are easy to modify as needs change.

CONTAIN

PLATFORM

Space planners, prepare to celebrate. Contain delivers the ultimate layout freedom by offering a full platform of storage products that work great alone, and even better when combined with other HON products, such as Accelerate, Abound and Voi. Contain can be customized to complement a workstation both functionally and aesthetically, through a variety of options such as drawer configurations, fabric-wrapped cushions, laminate tops and fronts, and more. Not only is it designed to support today's applications, Contain adapts to changing needs as companies grow.

CONTAIN
Accelerate™

Designed to seamlessly coordinate with Accelerate in both fit and finish, Contain credenzas create opportunities for greater storage personalization, while making the most of every square inch of a workstation.

CONTAIN
Abound®

Abound delivers the ultimate in workstation customization, and Contain echoes that by supporting a wide range of configurations and layouts, while also adding short term seating and complementary design accents.

CONTAIN
Voi®

Contain's low credenzas share Voi's linear aesthetic, durability and the flexibility to design within smaller footprints. Combine with Voi desking to increase the active storage and define personal space.
